FOR RELEASE IMMEDIATELY

SUBJECT: Warfel Construction Company awarded new IMAX Theater

East Petersburg, PA, June 21, 2010 – Warfel Construction Company was recently awarded the general construction contract from Penn Cinema to construct a new $5 million IMAX Theater adjacent to their existing theater complex on Airport Road in Lititz, PA. The new 20,000 sq. ft., 428 seat IMAX Theater will include a concession area and additional space for two future restaurants.

Overseeing the project for Warfel is Senior Project Manager Mike Dorgan, of York, and Superintendent Tim Boos, of Lancaster. The project, designed by JKR Partners of Philadelphia, is scheduled for completion later in 2010.

Penn Ketchum, Managing Partner of Penn Cinemas comments, “The Penn Cinema team is very excited about our new partnership with Warfel Construction. We believe their experience and skills are a perfect fit for our plans to bring IMAX, a world-class brand of entertainment, to Lancaster County.”
